Ed. 1 No. 8

Welcome to the last of our First Edition of NewsFlash. In two days a wonderful year of new possibilities will unfold. We thank all of the interesting, fun-loving and courageous adventure women who have made our inaugural year of 2009 so thrilling. We've now reached a half-million hits and found more phenomenal women that we could have ever imagined.

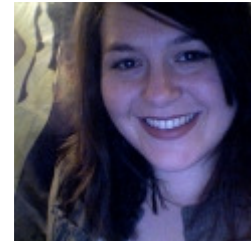

Cheers to all of you and wishes of a happy, healthy and adventurous 2010! Do you have a suggestion for us in 2010? Let us know. If we use your idea we'll send you a REAL Adventure Woman tee-shirt.

This issue is popping with excitement. Read our Adventure Interview with Emmy-nominated, reality television show producer, Maggie Zeltner-Hagen. Maggie not only produces some of your favorite TV shows but she is a blushing new bride. Judith O'Keefe holds up a trophy catch in Trix's Fishing Tips. We explore Fishing on the Flats in this issue. We are introducing a new shirt in 2010 for our Adventure Women who fish. Send us your fishing photo and receive a REEL Adventure Woman tee-shirt.

We are visiting Ireland in this edition. What more could you ask for in 2010 than the 'Luck of the Irish?' Learn the Seven

Ever have an annoying guy sit next to you on a trip? Wondered what to do? Read Susan Fitter Sloane's article in Notes From the Trail. She is an etiquette expert and helps us navigate in a world of less than polite people. Also in Notes From the Trail, Marissa Fink takes us on a nine-day bicycle journey of Lake Champlain. Follow her exhilarating vacation on 'five wheels' covering over 300 scenic miles. Lastly, Jennifer Smedley Wilson gives a sobering account of life as a military wife overseas with two young daughters and a husband on active duty. Let's remember to thank our Troops and the women and men who make difficult daily sacrifices.
